Grand Junction – The Young Democrats are hosting their first ever, Whirlwind Rallies on Thursday October 21, 2010.

The community at large and members of the press are welcome and encouraged to come to the Mesa State campus for the rally. The rally will be held in the Recital Hall in the Moss Performing Arts building, off of 12th and Glenwood.

We would like to start filling the area around 1:30 pm. We will then be presenting the following campaigns: Stan Garnett for Attorney General (2:00), Melissa Hart for CU Regent-at-large (2:45), Claudette Konola for Colorado State Senate District 7 (3:15), John Salazar for Congress (4:00) and John Hickenlooper for Governor (4:30). Various speakers and candidates will be attending. Each campaign will take anywhere from 30 to 45 minutes, times are approximate. Candidates will take questions from the audience during the rally.

This rally is open to anyone that can make it, there are no tickets; however, for parking passes, please contact the Young Democrats at mscyoungdems.weebly.com, watsonjeremy@lycos.com, or 970-596-1683. The press is encouraged to RSVP so we can plan accordingly, but it is not necessary. For any questions or to volunteer to help, please contact Jeremy Watson, President of Young Democrats at Mesa State, via e-mail at watsonjeremy@lycos.com.

Mesa State College does not endorse any candidates nor are they hosting/sponsoring this event. This event is brought to you solely by the Young Democrats.
